

The Messenger

The Monthly Newsletter of Zion Lutheran Church, Columbus, WI

I get down sometimes.

Can God help me deal with discouragement?

Do you ever feel that things you do really don't make a difference?

Is it sometimes difficult to see the results of your hard work?

There are many times when we may ask ourselves, "What's the point? Why do I keep trying?"

I know a man who, by no fault of his own, can't seem to keep a job for more than a year or two. He's to the point where he expects to be laid off whenever cutbacks happen. Discouraging? Yes, definitely.

When events in our lives lead us to be depressed or discouraged, two reactions come rather easily to us. The first is blaming God for the problems. The second is thinking that somehow God is punishing us for something we have done. However, neither of these reactions is correct.

The problem lies not with God; it lies with sin. All of life's problems come as a result of living in a world filled with sin. These problems include layoffs at work, health problems, family issues, and others. We'd have to get rid of sin to remove the troubles and problems that discourage us. But that's something we could spend the rest of our lives trying to accomplish and never complete the task. Thankfully, God accomplished what we are unable to.

We deserve to be sentenced under the judgment of God for everything we do or say or think that violates God's will for us to live perfect lives. But the Bible gives us the good news from God that "as far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us" (Psalm 103:12). In tremendous love for us, God took away all of our sins and laid them on Jesus. He charged his Son with our guilt. Jesus, our Savior, suffered the punishment that we deserved. He died to free us from eternal death.

Even though we experience discouragements in our life, nothing can take away the peace we have in Jesus, who took away our sins. Through faith in our Savior, we are children of God. Every day God is at our side, helping us through difficult times. Confidently trusting in him, our discouragements melt into the calm assurance that our loving God is always with us.

Worship with us.

George and Erin Morschauer

Where did you each grow up?

Erin grew up just south of Green Bay. George grew up in Deerfield.

How did you meet and marry and end up in Columbus?

George's cousin Mary was Erin's college roommate. We met at her family cabin when we were 19. We reconnected in our late 20's. We had a long-distance relationship until George moved to Green Bay, where we married and had Lincoln. We moved to Deerfield after that, and welcomed Geonna. When we were house hunting, we had a broad search area, and ended up finding our home in Columbus, which has been such a blessing!

What do you like to tell people about each of your kids?

Lincoln is super energetic, and loves to be funny. Geonna is very patient and sweet.

What do you do for work and how did you get into it?

George is a carpenter by trade. He follows a long line of carpenters, and was introduced to the craft at a very young age. Erin is a hairstylist. It was a natural progression from playing with her Barbies' hair, to her friends' hair, and then beauty school.

If you time off, what do you like to do with your family – and what is fun about those things?

When the weather is warm, we like to spend most of our time outside. We like to swim, fish and have cookouts. We like to have family movie night, and game night, and spend time with our many family members.

Any pivotal moments in your life when your faith was in question, but then strengthened?

A pivotal moment in our faith was when we had Lincoln. We both grew up in Christian homes, but weren't actively going to church. We knew we wanted him to be baptized, and became members at Alleluia Lutheran. We feel happier and more fulfilled when God and Church are a priority in our life. We are very happy to have found Zion!

How did you come to be a part of Zion?

We heard of Zion through family and friends. We were visitors at first, but quickly realized we wanted to become members.

Your kids are going to Zion Lutheran School. If someone asks you "Why are you sending them there?" what do you tell them?

We really want our kids to have a faith-based education. Our kids love Zion School, and so do we. It's very much a family feel. Everyone is so friendly and welcoming. The structure and smaller class sizes have been really beneficial for both Lincoln and Geonna.

What do you do to keep your faith strong – Bible study habits, prayer time, etc.?

We attend church and talk about God quite often as a family. We have regular prayer times at home such as meal times and bed time.

When you think about the future of Zion, how do things look different? What do you hope remains unchanged?

Hopefully a newer and larger school is in Zion's future! As much as we love how small it is, it would be great to see it grow with more new families.

SUNDAY BIBLE STUDY:

DANIEL - GOD'S KINGDOM IS EVERLASTING

Daniel was taken from his home at a young age and placed in the service of a foreign king, the leader of the Babylonian Empire. Daniel's people, the nation of Israel, was in exile. By all appearance, they had been defeated and had no future. This, however, was not the whole story. Throughout the book of Daniel, God reveals that earthly kingdoms, one after another, rise and fall, but his kingdom is everlasting. His people, his believers, will share in his final victory over all enemies. Join us Sunday mornings at 9:15am at Zion to hear more about this message. We will cover just more than the first half of the book. Join us in the Fellowship Hall:

Oct 22nd – One Like a Son of Man Reigns Forever (ch. 7)
